

Burn Faster

Nine Black Alps

Bent out of shape, her body moves
And pull the feeling from your face
Completely screwed

All out of style, why can't you see
There's so much sadness in your smile
It's always you who has to

Burn faster
Cut deeper
Hit harder
Fall further

Always the same, can't change your colors
Or you'll look the other way for a better view
The bitter taste

You broke the mold
That held you firmly in your place
And now it's you who has to

Burn faster
Cut deeper
Hit harder
Fall further

When every little step you take
Keep making the same mistake
Yeah

Burn faster
Cut deeper
Hit harder
Fall further
