

Rebel Ladies

Zed Yago

Her name was Ann Boney
she made history she was the famous pirate ill famed for tragedy Rebel ladies breaking the rule, rebel babies take over entering you Another lady in that age who was called Mary Reed she wore man's dress and fought for what she needed. They decided to live, totally free, out of woman's traditional life they decided to be mutinous speeding up the fight. There was a little woman with a slit of an eye
"evil" was the name blood thirsty the game.
