

Hand In Hand

Walking On Cars

If I walk this way, it's an easy way home
Hand in hand with someone I don't know
    Beautiful and maybe tonight
    And then the morning comes
    And then the morning comes
    Now I wish I was alone again
Now I wish that I could remember your name
    Now I wash I was alone again
    Coffee, cigarette, goodbye

    Strangers connect tonight
    But we don't know why
    And we don't know how
But we could fall into each other now

But if I'm making my way into the back of your mind
Hand in hand but I know you this time
    Beautiful and I know it's right
    And then the morning comes
    And when the morning comes
    I never wanna be alone again
And now I know that remember your name
    I never wanna be alone again
    Coffee, cigarette, goodbye

    Strangers connect tonight
    But we don't know why
    And we don't know how
But we could fall into each other now

    Strangers connect tonight
    But we don't know why
    And we don't know how
But we could fall into each other now

But we could fall into each other now

    Strangers connect tonight
    But we don't know why
    And we don't know how

But we could fall into each other now

But we could fall into each other now
But we could fall into each other now

Strangers connect tonight
Strangers connect tonight
But we don't know why

But we could fall into each other now

Strangers connect tonight
Strangers connect tonight
But we don't know why
