When The Lights Die

Boyce Avenue

If you go now
Please leave the light on
Just say goodbye now and leave
With you gone now
You've turned the right to wrong
It's getting hard now to breathe
It goes on and on
But not in my head
This time
When the lights die
And there's nothing left to say
That's when you'll need me
If I break down
And you see me fading out
I know enough now to make it right
If I don't stop
I just keep on waiting up
Well I know enough to know
I'll never make it right
It goes on and on
But not in my head
This time
When the lights die
That's when you'll need me
This time
When the lights die

And there's no one else to blame
That's when you'll need me
And now
With the lights turned down
And your eyes half open
I know you don't see me
When I'm standing out
If you just turn around
And keep your eyes wide open
I know you might feel me here
I know you don't see me

You don't feel me
But keep your eyes wide open
Your eyes wide open
I know you don't see me
You don't feel me
But keep your eyes wide open
Your eyes wide open
This time when the lights die
That's when you'll need me
That's when you'll need me
I know you don't see me
You don't feel me
But keep your eyes wide open
