Underground

Onesidezero

See mother will hold the children from the all worlds' pain
Father still holds deep with eyes of hate
Folding our arms and the happiness
Falls apart for, all was unknown
Until' you create the gameSo it's time
Clear our minds
UndergroundShut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyesFollow the gun quench the thirst for love that you had kept from
Only son that has held you up so high
Felt like the world has been pushed away and back again
When, mother will you
Protect all of us, somehow?So this time
Clear our minds
UndergroundShut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyesShut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
