Onesidezero

See mother will hold the children from the all worlds' pain
Father still holds deep with eyes of hate
Folding our arms and the happiness
Falls apart for, all was unknown
Until' you create the game So it's time
Clear our minds
Underground Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes Follow the gun quench the thirst for love that you had kept from
Only son that has held you up so high
Felt like the world has been pushed away and back again
When, mother will you
Protect all of us, somehow? So this time
Clear our minds
Underground Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
Shut your eyes
