Grade

in mystery of how they could let us become one step closer of living eternally in misery the answer lays right before me its simplicity is engorged by what's taught in the past they say nothing can be obtained that easy attaining things that way is just not meant to be it's denial of what we are facing we are the brainwashed generation implanted the denial of what we are facing we are not incapable of halting this desecration don give in to their violations believe
