

Land Shark

Endless Struggle

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

He's a land shark coming through better watch out he's coming for you he doesn't care what's right from wrong people say that he should change he don't want to live his life that way [chorus:]
he's a land shark, what are you gonna do he's a land shark, and he's coming for you
he's a land shark, what are you gonna do he's a land shark, and he's coming for you You better keep your opinion to yourself win or lose, he will give it a try look you in the eye, eye to eye he don't need no fucking alibi [chorus:]
he's a land shark, what are you gonna do
he's a land shark, and he's coming for you don't give a toss about what you think and all your views, he thinks they fucking stink [chorus:]
he's a land shark, what are you gonna do
