

Indian Summer

Manic Street Preachers

If God persists, persists in saying yes
I guess we'll have, we'll have to test ourselves
Maybe the summer will come and clear our minds
And find the impulse to love the sunshine I guess we'll have to test
Until there's nothing left
We said the truth was fixed
It's lost without a trace This crime is eternity
When time lost its certainty
The Indian summer And maybe this time we'll kiss and we'll not shake hands
Indian summer, still hurt and broken
And leave all this material belief
Remember the reasons, the reasons that made us be I guess we'll have to test
What's darker than ourselves
We said the truth was fixed
It's lost without a trace This crime is eternity
When time lost its certainty
The Indian summer The Indian summer
The Indian summer
The Indian summer I guess we'll have to test
Until there's nothing left
We said the truth was fixed
It's lost without a trace This crime is eternity
When time lost its certainty
The Indian summer The Indian summer
The Indian summer
The Indian summer

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>