You're the Riot

The Filthy Violets

How many lasts are you waiting for
Picking carpet on your bedroom floor
Dancing on tombstones and digging graves
To the beginning you were late and for the ruin you set the date
You're the riot they're all looking for
Oh you're the riot they're all looking for
Yeah you're the riot they're all looking for
Now you got one banging down your door
Always so liberal in your ways
And so conservative when it's time to pay
Death would be no blunder
I'd rather show you the high then hold you under
You're the riot they're all looking for
Oh you're the riot they're all looking for
Yeah you're the riot they're all looking for
Now you got one banging down your door
