Bloom

Kaizen & Shinigami

If I can find a blank page
I'd start a new beginning
We can take the mistakes
Replace them with an ending
A bit of change
A midnight moon
We'll find our way
As we start to bloom
(Brings me back to you)
Brings me back to you
(Brings me back to you)
Brings me back to you
(Brings me back to you)
(Brings me back to you)
There some pieces we crave
In a World that's ever empty
We can take the free space
Build a castle, keep pretending
A bit of change
A midnight moon
We'll find our way
As we start to bloom
(Brings me back to you)
Brings me back to you
(Brings me back to you)
Brings me back to you
(Brings me back to you)
