Reality Is A Ride On The Bus

SNFU

My face is buried inside a book
Everybody's wearing a haggard look
The sirens scream, a baby cries
Everyday on this bus I rideThere's a man to my left
Who's got a stump for a hand
I'm staring into a giant cyst
Growing on the face of a Chinese manReality is a ride on the busThe mongoloid is in the back
He's having his snot for lunch
There's a loud mouth sitting next to me
The one that everybody wants to punchReality is a ride on the busSo hop on board and step inside
This sardine can on wheels we'll ride
