Thunderhead

Overkill

Nothing but lying and killing and dying in this dream
Anything better than what we better believe
No mention of freedom, no glory, Hallelu
No mention your freedom, I'm coming home for youLife was but of a simple dream of doing what was right
Broken into pieces, as day turns into night
Life was but a simple dream, now all I see is red
Broken into fragments by the thunderheadSend the word ahead, don't wanna be alone
Time to wake the dead, I'm coming home
Send the word ahead, I'm cast in stone
Feel the thunderheadI'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm comingEveryone crying and burning and frying in my dream
Everyone needs just a little bit more to believe
Intention, no bleeding, thinking what I have to do
Intention, more bleeding, I'm coming home for youLife was just a simple dream of doing what was right
Broken into pieces, when day turned into night
Life was but a simple dream, now all I see is red
Broken into fragments, by the thunderheadSend the word ahead, don't wanna be alone
Time to wake the dead, I'm coming home
Send the word ahead, I'm cast in stone
Feel the thunderheadI'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm comingLife was just a simple dream of doing what was right
Broken into pieces, when day turned into nightSend the word ahead, don't wanna be alone
Time to wake the dead, I'm coming home
Send the word ahead, I'm cast in stone
Feel the ThunderheadI'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home

(Thunderhead)
I'm coming
(Thunderhead)I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm coming home
(Thunderhead)
I'm comingNothing but lying and killing and dying in this dream
Anything better than what we better believe
