

Evening Star

M.E.K

We will sail on forever
On to the land of the evening star
 Into the endless we ride
 Unveil the darkness behind
 Abandoned glory hidden, castaway we ride
 Now will the sky surrender
 Forever through the never
A silent whisper echoes through my restless heart tonight
 I will see the glory rise
 We'll be one tonight
 Don't you shut your eyes in silence
 Tonight gather near, come and live your fear
 In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
 You live for the right to be free
 We will sail on forever
 On to the land of the evening star
 In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
 The land of the evening star
 Now and forever after
 Asylums filled with laughter
Suspicion haunts my dreams and echo through my mind
 This starlit gaze reminds me
 Are you so blind you can't see?
The winds of change my friend will blow for you in the dead night
 I will see glory rise
 We'll be one tonight
 Don't you shut your eyes in silence
 Tonight gather near, come and live your fear
 In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
 You live for the right to be free
 We will sail on forever
 On to the land of the evening star
 In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
 The land of the evening star
 In a land of desire your heart filled with fire
 You live for the right to be free
 We will sail on forever
 On to the land of the evening star
 In a land of desire your heart filled with fire

The land of the evening star
