See You In Hell

Hinder

I bet Sinatra's there Chilling with Marilyn in her underwear
I bet you Elvis ain't the king
With Morrison and Joplin on stage about to sing

Don't act you like you don't party 'cause I've seen you around So let's get it started
'cause tonight it's goin' down
See you in Hell
What the hell, you never can tell
It might be like Heaven
The Devil y'all has got an old Les Paul His amps are all cranked up to eleven everybody say hell
everybody say yeah
I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat, and damn I do it well
see you in Hell
Down here all the girls are smokin'
If you wanna fight or need a light the bar is always open Now think what you wanna think You only live once, you only die once and I just poured a drink
See you in Hell
What the hell, you never can tell
It might be like Heaven

I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat,
and damn I do it well
see you in Hell
(solo)
See you in Hell
What the hell, you never can tell

His amps are all cranked up to eleven
everybody say hell
I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat,
and damn I do it well
see you in Hell
See you in Hell
I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat,
see you in Hell
see you in Hell
