Love Unconditional (feat. Tone Jonez)

JustPierre

[Intro: Tone Jonez]
Yeah {Repeat 9x}

[Chorus: Tone Jonez]
No I'm not perfect, no
I made my mistakes and all
But all I want is love unconditional
Love uncondi-
I don't deserve it, no
But it would be worth it all
All I want is love unconditional
Love unconditional

[Verse 1: JustPierre]
And that's what you give
Huh, and that's your true gift
You sacrificed your life for the foolish
And that just hits me hard like 2 hadoukens
Walked .2 miles in the scorching heat
Carrying the cross that really belonged to me
Laid down your life, o' how it's so awesome
That blood from Golgotha reach all the way to Compton
You loved me at my worst, you saw potential
You pursued me, though I didn't want to be bothered with You
You desired to be worshiped and you found a temple
This earthen vessel holds the treasures of the God of Israel
He gives springs of water, for dry streams
He turns rocky roads to ice cream
Huh, You turn misery to miracles
Love so visible, love unconditional
Whoa

[Chorus: Tone Jonez]

[Verse 2: JustPierre]
The stone that the builder's refused
Became the most important piece to be used, Chief Cornerstone
Calling on the Lord, you don't need a mobile phone
The reproach is gone, you can now approach the throne
No need to front like you can hold your own

To cure the flesh, you need more than hydrocortisone
We need God's Son to take what we've all done
Upon Himself and nail it to the cross and say 'The job's done!'
Huh, no wonder He deserves the praises
He's the Alpha and Omega, the Rock of Ages
So whenever life is hectic, I ain't snapping, holmes
I know the Father's watching me like a chaperone
(Laughs) Whatever you might face in life
Just know that faith in Christ, will make it right
I tell you leave the Lord alone if you afraid of heights
'Cause He will take you high, higher than a plane could fly

[Bridge]
{Tone Jonez} Yeah {Repeat 5x}
{JustPierre} I said I want that love
{Tone Jonez} Unconditional
{JustPierre} I said I need that love
{Tone Jonez} Unconditional
{JustPierre} I said I want that love
{Tone Jonez} Unconditional
{JustPierre} I said I need that love
{Tone Jonez} Unconditional
