I'd Go

Sarah P

Yes, I'd go
Somewhere to find my home
Away from those
Who stole my light and let me roamDreams are binding please that wind us so apart
That's hard to find back
Handcuffs all around my neck and thorny wires
That have been tying my heartAnd yes, I'd go
Somewhere to build my home
Away from those
Whos stole my light and let me roamTime is up they will start coming so maybe
It's time for me to pack
To leave behind my whole life is hard
So wish me luck - yeah, wish me luck!And yes, I'd go
And I need to be strong
To fight back
They'll come with knives, they'll come with stonesOn my knees, I'm praying please
Take them away from me
Or should we fight? But goddamn right - we're two, they're always threeBut say so -oh-
Say that you'll come with me
If not true love
Then what's to keep me fightingTell me that we will be alright
Tell me that we will do just fineAnd yes, I'd go
Anywhere with you
I found my home
It's your light! You guide me through!Get up my love
Let's go now
I'll fight them back
I know how
I'm not afraid
Why should I be
They brought me pain
But now I'm freeI'm free to go
I broke my "chance"
To fly with youNow I'm freeTo fly with you
