

Reds & Blues

Stone Temple Pilots

I've had no tolerance for days
What's that color that you use
Forever
In my experimental phase
All these colors that turn blue
Together I'd rather sleep out on the Avenue
Than hold onto those pieces
Of all the things you thought you never knew
You're better off wrong
Midnight afternoon
A window I can't see through
When I'm in my reds & blues Welcome the monumental haze
All the wonder we once knew
Forever
There's been no sleep for several days
The struggle we went through
Together I'd rather sleep out on the Avenue
Than hold onto those pieces
Of all the things you thought you never knew
You're better off wrong
And where you lie is where a flower grows
Won't make a sound for the brand new day Midnight afternoon
A window I can't see through
When I'm in my reds & blues

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>