Another Creation

Mors Principium Est

[lyrics by Ville Viljanen]I take a stone and put it away
I take the soil and put it aside Then mixed them as oneI've seen the stars been born I've tasted the cosmic universe
When the others sold their world
I did create another dimension
I had created another dimensionForgotten worlds have been terminated
The whole meaning of mankind is goneLet planets impale the space
Fly through the nortern sky
We need the moon
like flowers need the rain eternal journey through the time
let us all fear the day
I am the truth, I am I am creationIf our peace is broken by another race we have to fight or stars to fade in the wind is our last farewells we hope this fight will never come to its endI've seen the stars been born I've tasted the cosmic universe
When the others left their world
I did create a paradise
I did forget a thousand paradiseForgotten worlds have been terminated
The whole meaning of mankind is goneLet planets impale the space
Fly through the nortern sky
We need the moon
like flowers need the rain
eternal journey through the time
let us all fear the day
I am the truth, I am
I am creation
