Under the Grave

Rozes

Though you haven't heard too much from me
Like I'm a world apart
Your mama says you're doing well, I'm so sorry
I haven't been thereI got my baby saying now it's okay
But he knows that it's not okay
Why did I fall off?
When did my heart go under the grave?I blame it on something else
When it all goes down, when it all goes down
Yeah, I've always been the one that was there for you
That was there for you
I know that I've been taking you for granted
I know that I've been leaving you stranded
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?Flash my mind, yeah, I've been captured
By my greed
I let it all slip, yeah, let it all get
Away from meI got my baby saying now it's okay
But he knows that it's not okay
Why did I fall off?
When did my heart go under the grave?[Chorus]
I blame it on something else
When it all goes down, when it all goes down
Yeah, I've always been the one who was there for you
That was there for you
I know that I've been taking you for granted
I know that I've been leaving you stranded
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?You say you won't forget about me
Please say you won't forget about me
When it all goes down
When it all goes down, down

Please say you won't forget about meI blame it on something else
When it all goes down, when it all goes down
Yeah, I've always been the one that was there for you
That was there for you
I know that I've been taking you for granted
I know that I've been leaving you stranded
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?When did my heart go under the grave?
When did my heart go under the grave?
