

Love for Me

Robert Francis

I know there is a place, a place where I belong
Not be mistreated or undone
And if I find that place, I'll keep my mouth shut
'Cause I won't be there aloneAnd if you're standing there with me
I'll swear it's a lie, and I'll still believe it'Cause I came and I spoke and you ran
Didn't even wait to hear the words
See the look in my eyes
'Cause I bled and you watchedAnd I cried myself to sleep
Came to wipe my tears away but you
Couldn't look in my eyes again
Because of the love for meWell, I understand the time
It passes so slowly and I can hear it's laughter
But there will come a time
When you will ask me and I will join you thenAnd if you're standing there with me
I'll swear it's a lie, and I'll still believe it'Cause I came and I spoke and you ran
Didn't even wait to hear the words
Or see the look in my eyes
'Cause I bled and you watchedAnd I cried myself to sleep
Came to wipe my tears away but you
Couldn't look in my eyes again
Because of the love for meBecause of the love for me
Because of the love for me
