

Last Desperado

The Autumn Offering

There's no coming home, when you're on the way to the end

 Say our last goodbyes, holding in all that we can

 And we both know that I'm scared of leaving

There's no need to show it, just set me on my wayHere I kneel, screaming for an answer

 While God, just turns his other cheek

 As I move from this world

 Realizing what was meant to bePoint me in the right direction

 Let me wander until I find my reason

 If you don't hear from me by this time tomorrow

 Don't worry, 'cause it's all overI'll have known what I died for

 With hope, you will find your way without me

 But don't give up until you find that reason

I'll be watching over you all, with a deaf ear to your criesThere's no coming home, when you're on the way to the end

 Say our last goodbyes, holding in all that we can

 And we both know that I'm scared of leaving

There's no need to show it, just set me on my wayHere I kneel, screaming for an answer

 While God, just turns his other check

 As I move from this world

 Realizing what was meant to be

 What was meant to be

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlrics.com/>