Searching

Unshaped

What you say sounds familiar
I've been waiting for someone like you
Let me ask you one to another
Do you believe that there is something out there?
Does it test your life, your patience, your pride?
Will you lose your mind or will you make it?
Can you tell me what it is that I'm searching for? Searching
What you're saying sounds familiar
I've been waiting for someone like you
Let me ask you one to another
Do you believe that there is something out there?
Does it test your life, your patience, your pride?
Will you lose your mind or will you make it?
Can you tell me what it is that I'm searching for?
Maybe why I've been looking all my life
Can you tell me what it is that I'm searching for?
Maybe I can find the reason why
As I wonder I discover
An emptiness that I can't fill until I find it
I'm getting close, it's becoming clearer
But when I find it will I know that it's the answer?
Does it test your life, your patience, your pride?
Will you lose your mind or will you make it?
Can you tell me what it is that I'm searching for?
Maybe why I've been looking all my life
Can you tell me what it is that I'm searching for?
Maybe I can find the reason why
I feel like I'm searching, don't know what I'll find
I feel like I'm searching, don't know what I'll find
Can you tell me what it is that I'm searching for?
Maybe why I've been looking all my life
Can you tell me what it is that I'm searching for?
Maybe I can find the reason why, still searching
