

Now Comes the Night

Rob Thomas

And when the hour is upon us and our beauty surely gone
No, you will not be forgotten and you will not be alone
No, you will not be alone And when the day has all but ended and our echo starts to fade
No, you will not be alone then and you will not be afraid
No, you will not be afraid And when the fog has finally lifted from my cold and tired brow
No, I will not leave you crying, no, I will not let you down
No, I will not let you down and I will not let you down Now comes the night, feel it fading away
And the soul underneath, is it all that remains?
So just slide over here, leave your fear in the fray
Let us hold to each other until the end of our days
