Run

Frenzal Rhomb

I'm not a coward I've got sense when it comes to self-defense
I'd rather leave the scene than fight
You can try and you just might
You can succeed to make me bleed, runRun away from this anger if you just can't stand the ground
Look at what you've found
Start to pray when you hear the speech
Of what are you looking at, well, I'm not looking at youDon't delay if you can't escape
It's harder to rationalize when all you feel is hate
I can't perceive why you demean yourself
And all those around you, your rudeness astounds meYeah, gonna have some fun
Yeah, with everyone
Yeah, gonna have some fun
Yeah, we're gonna have some fucking fun
