

Scorched Earth Policy

Revocation

Weaponized to neutralize
Always on patrol
Under constant surveillance
Their need for control
Automaton gaining sentience
A glitch in the system
Raining down hell-fire on innocent civilians
Now we're all just dots on a screen, just blips on a radar
The human race is obsolete; total extermination
Cold and calculated
Prowler of the skies
Ceaseless in its devotion
The ever-watchful eye
All organic life forms will perish in their wake
There will be no survivors on our judgement day
Now we're all just dots on a screen, just blips on a radar
The human race is obsolete; total extermination
All the fail-safes have failed
Welcome to the new regime
The only law of the land
A scorched earth policy
Scorched earth policy
All the fail-safes have failed
Welcome to the new regime
