

Nothing Happening

Ben Kweller

Like sun through the night
Just to get it right
A battle ground at my feet
An unwinnable fight
The words we say won't matter anyhow
Let's focus on tomorrow instead of right now
Nothing happening
It's all illusion, it's all illusion
Nothing happening
It's all confusion, it's all confusion
Fumes are flying all around
This room tonight
Now there's nothing we can do
To make each other feel alright
Instead of trying to tell me how to be
Just focus on tomorrow instead of on me
Nothing happening
It's all illusion, it's all confusion
If we want to keep this love we found
We got to focus on tomorrow instead of right now
Nothing happening
It's all illusion, it's all illusion
Nothing happening
It's all confusion, it's all confusion
It's all confusion
Nothing is happening, happening
It's all illusion, it's all illusion
Nothing is happening, happening
It's all confusion, it's all confusion
It's all confusion, it's all confusion
It's all confusion, it's all confusion
