

The Air That I Breathe

All That Remains

I will not relent, no, no
Never live with defeat, never falter
This like the air that I breath
I will not choke on failure I am a mortal man
But I'm no falling I'm not broken yet
I'm am a mortal man
But I'll hold tight to my beliefs now I have suffered defeat, pain, loss
Still I push to the edge, never falter
For this cements my beliefs
I'll remain my own master I will not relent, no, no
Never suffer defeat, never falter
For this cements my beliefs
I will not choke on failure
