

Revolution Regained

The Living End

They came in the evening
Looking for a fight the foreign Militia
Stole away our right Three thousand miles away
Revolution regained
(Eyes)
Eyes that lie and skin that scars No introductions
Nothing left to say, see the destruction
How could it end this way, this way? And in the evening
Something is seething
(Eyes)
Eyes that lie and skin that scars And in the evening
Something is seething
(Eyes)
Eyes that lie and skin that scars Revolution regained
