

Mind Body & Soul

Jean B. Gerbier

Mind Body & Soul

I

Could I have kissed you that night, the moment your honey lips whispered lovely words in my ears Can I take your hands and guide you to all the hidden places, that are reserved only for your touch.

Chorus

Mind, body and soul, you are my inspiration, the passion that is shared between us, relieves pleasures that we often shared Mind, body and soul.

II

Can I offer you my body, my soul and my love. Can I give you the freedom to live by my side, while at the same time holding you close to my heart, and entice your lips, with sweetness of kisses from my mind.

Can I take your hands and guide you to all the hidden places, that are reserved only for your touch.
