

Feels Like a Weight Has Been Lifted

Quicksand

Watching now
I see more frequent warning signs
Everybody's talking about the end
Paranoid, self-employed working man
Blood moon is closing in fast
Look out And it feels like a weight has been lifted Oh, what are the odds?
With your head stuck in the clouds
Loves lost, misplaced and loves found
Oh great, move on to business
What you say?
No, new phone, who is this? And it feels like a weight has been lifted
And it feels like a weight has been lifted What are the odds?
And it feels like a weight has been lifted
And it feels like a weight has been lifted
