I'm Not the Sun

Arkells

Slipped through the front door without a key
Its always unlocked when youre waiting for me
And I have to wait 'til your roommates were sleeping
They give you a hard time that I was overYour eyes light up, always the same
Just like I was taking you on a first date
But you have no reason for feeling this waySo dont let me be your guiding light
'Cause that was never my power
Im not the sun, theres no guarantee
I burn out hard like a sparkSo dont let me be your guiding light
'Cause Ill keep you lost in the dark
Im not the sun, theres no guarantee
Cuz I burn out hard like a spark
Yeah, I burn out hard like a spark.
