

Gray

Ballet School

I only ever had you for a moment
And I never thought you'd leave me but you ran right
Ran right, ran right through me
I can't really tell you how I'm doin'
I finally know
You never really loved me at all 'Cause everything about me is a struggle
Why do I have to save every girl?
Why can't I admit that I need better?
Because you move me like Whoa-oh-oh-oh
I like you Run around the city with a new friend
And I think I said your name like maybe one time
Wanna get out of here?
He looks at me so crazy when I say that
I wish we were old
Then we would have survived all this Now please don't try to fool me with your reason
I know you like the back of my hand
Why can't I admit that I need better?
Because you move me like Whoa-oh-oh-ohh
I like you Yeah
