

All Alone

David O'Dowda

And though the troubles in the dark
I will hold all the lights on you
We give ourselves a shining star
All alone, all alone

And all the roses turn to black
And my heart is as cold as stone
We give ourselves a shining star
All alone, all alone

And though the troubles in the dark
I will hold all the lights on you
We give ourselves a shining star
All alone, all alone
