You and Me

Coko

When you first met me
I said I already had a man
But you still pursued me
Now you don't understand
I won't let him go
I told you so
Listen to me
Ain't nothing changed
So don't expect for me to leaveI never made you think there was love
I never said there's a chance for us
So there's no need for you to catch feelings for me
What will it take for you to give up
How could you possibly love so much
But there can't be anything between you and meThere never was a time when I loved you
There never was a chance that I gave you
So how could you be loving me, when I never loved you
Why can't you just leave me alone
Don't try and break up my happy home
What must I do for you to see
That there's no you and meOne year has gone by
So why do you keep on calling me
I told you the last time
That me and you could never be
Time has gone by
And still you try
To get with me
No questions why
Don't try to find
A place with meI never made you think there was love
I never said there's a chance for us
So there's no need for you to catch feelings for me
What will it take for you to give up
How could you possibly love so much
But there can't be anything between you and meThere never was a time when I loved you
There never was a chance that I gave you
So how could you be loving me, when I never loved you
Why can't you just leave me alone
Don't try and break up my happy home
What must I do for you to see

That there's no you and meThere never was a time when I loved you
There never was a chance that I gave you
So how could you be loving me, when I never loved you
Why can't you just leave me alone
Don't try and break up my happy home
What must I do for you to see
That there's no you and meI never made you think there was love
I never said there's a chance for us
So there's no need for you to catch feelings for me
What will it take for you to give up
How could you possibly love so much
But there can't be anything between you and meThere never was a time when I loved you
There never was a chance that I gave you
So how could you be loving me, when I never loved you
Why can't you just leave me alone
Don't try and break up my happy home
What must I do for you to see
That there's no you and me
