

As the Cold Rain Falls

Tiger Army

As the grey sky opens my heart sings
I carry a torch as the New Year rings
And I still feel the same after all this time
A future of past on my mind

And I'll wait for you
As the cold rain falls
The Earth falls away
But my heart is true

And I'll wait for you
As the cold rain falls
The Earth falls away
But my heart is true

Tonight I remember what it was like
To hear the rain's song when you were mine
Now here in this silence my heart dies
Saved by the roar of a broken sky

And I'll wait for you
As the cold rain falls
The Earth falls away
But my heart is true
