Montara Bay

Tempest

Welcome to the water's edge
To you I'll give my pledge
Here upon the sandy beach
I'll rest my weary headI will give my brightest day
In the darkness I will pray
Sun and moon and tears of gold
I'm sharing now with youRolling in to Montara Bay
Coming in from far away
Sailing in with hopes and wishes
I am coming home todayThe sound of strings ran through my mind
The tears I left behind
Packed my bags and told my folks
To wait for me no moreLeft them once and left them twice
Followed all the wrong advice
Took my hat into my hands
And bid my friends farewellRolling in to Montara Bay
Coming in from far away
Sailing in with hopes and wishes
I am coming home to stayPlayed the streets and never fell
Sure I raised a lot of hell
My flight was high, when I was young
But I landed by your sideInside any open door
I've slept on many a floor
I'll walk another mile for you
My boots are tall and strongRolling in to Montara Bay
Coming in from far away
Sailing in with hopes and wishes
I am coming home to stayI have rambled open roads
Never carried many loads
Neither did I turn my face
Against a falling star
So welcome to the water's edge
To you I'll give my pledge
Here upon the sandy beach
I'll rest my weary headRolling into Montara Bay
Coming in from far away
Sailing in with hopes and wishes
I am coming home
Rolling in to Montara Bay

Coming in from far away
Sailing in with hopes and wishes
I am coming home today
