Change Is Gonna Come

Pretty Lights

Something's come, feel it down in my bones
Yeah, it's been a long time gone but ya here tonight
Now let's not look back, ya keeping me right on track
Feel the karma coming back, we're gonna be aright
If everything's a constant battle
Sometimes you won't win
If all our strengths turn into struggles
We won't be giving in
We'll be living on an all time high
I'm trying to keep it
We've learnt to walk but now it's time to run
A change is gonna come
Living on an all time high
I'm gonna live it
First thought we couldn't but it can be done
Change is gonna come, ooh
Troubled times had been a good friend of mine
Yeah, it's been around a while keeping me down
But through it all, even with a broken soul
Here I am standing tall 'cause you're around
If everything's a constant battle
Sometimes you won't win
If all our strengths turn into struggles
We won't be giving in
We'll be living on an all time high
I'm trying to keep it
We've learnt to walk but now it's time to run
A change is gonna come
Living on an all time high
I'm gonna live it
First thought we couldn't but it can be done
Change is gonna come
For every sign that said we'd never find the means to
Change is gonna come
For every word they said they never heard that they knew
Change is gonna come
And given time, I want some piece of mind, same as you do
Sing it change is coming, you better be waiting
You better be ready running faster

Faster, it's coming
Living on an all time high
I'm trying to keep it
We've learnt to walk but now it's time to run
A change is gonna come
Living on an all time high
I'm trying to keep it
We've learnt to walk but now it's time to run
And change is gonna come
Living on an all time high
I'm gonna live it
First thought we couldn't but it can be done
Change is gonna come
Change is coming, oh, you better be running
I see you ready, I keep running
Faster, faster, it's coming
Change is coming, oh, you better be running
I see you ready, I keep running
Faster, faster, it's coming
