

One Life

No Angels

I don't wanna hear another voice say'in there's nothing more I should be the one to make the choice to open another door
But I was moving in the right direction
I thought I had it all, figured out, but now I'm feeling like there's something missing,
I just realised

[Refrain]:

I only got one life, one life!
Tonight I'm gonna live mine, live mine,
I'm gonna have a good time, good time,
i wanna be free.

I only got one life, one life!
Tonight I'm gonna live mine, live mine,
I'm gonna have a good time, good time,
i wanna be free.

Why was I afraid to take a chance, knowing that I am strong?

Take me to the floor and I will dance watch me go on and on Yes now I'm heading in the right direction don't need to have it all figured out and when I'm feeling like there's something missing I'm gonna remember

[Refrain] I'm feeling it with confidence

I don't care about consequence
I'm gonna do what's best for me
Reaching for my destiny Hold on - I feel it I'm pushing to the limit
I'm working my ass off - forever I will bring it [Refrain]
