

Insomnia

The Glass Child

Too slow, will this night never end
Im avoiding your side of the bed
And the wind is screaming your name and the words we wrote on the wall starts to fadeI never know what to say
Please just stay with me
Dont tell me its too late
To late to be
There have to be awayIm numb now
Observing the ceiling
Just empty
I dont know what Im feelingIm counting the minutes awake
But Im losing track of the daysI never know what to say
Please just please stay with me
Dont tell me its to late
Too late to be
Couldnt you hear me say
Please just wait for me
There have to be a wayThis cant be where it ends
This cant be how it ends
nooCan I be your friend
I need you as my friend
I thought that we were friendsThis cant be how it ends
This cant be where it ends
I thought that we were friendsCan I be your friend
This isnt how it ends
I thought that we were friendsThis cant be how it ends
I thought that we were friendsI need you as my friend
Dont tell me this is the end
This cant be how it ends
