

No Eye Candy

Slothrust

When you walked in the room,
I thought my luck had changed,
My luck had changed too soon.
I saw you on stage with a snake,
People dripping wet

Fill my plasma screen
Take one, take two, take three,
Take, take, take, take, take,
But all you said to me was,
But all you said to me was,
No eye candy, no eye candy

No eye candy, no eye candy

No eye candy, no eye candy

No eye candy, no eye candy (murmuring) No eye candy, no eye candy

No eye candy, no eye candy

No eye candy, no eye candy

No eye candy, no eye candy
