Kiss You Good Morning

Jake Owen

I was good at the game,
when I had nothing to lose.
Then you started playing,
and changed all of the rules.
I stole my share of good hearts in the night,
then vanished before the dawn,
but for the first time in my life I know exactly what I want
I wanna kiss you good morning, let's not let this one end in goodnight.
It's just the start of our story, and the ending is no where in sight.
I wanna hold you all night,
in the first sign of light, everyday for the rest of my life. From now on I wanna kiss you good morning.
It's never been me
to open every door,

or leave little notes,
or spill my heart on the floor.
I wanna cross that sacred line that says now we're more than friends.
I wanna drink that lover's wine, fall asleep and then I wanna kiss you good morning, let's not let this one end in
goodnight.
It's just the start of our story, and the ending is no where in sight.
I wanna hold you all night,
in the first sign of light, everyday for the rest of my life. From now on I wanna kiss you good morning.
There's no better way than to start everyday lying next to the one you love.
So baby tonight you can close your eyes and tomorrow when you wake up I'm gonna kiss you good morning.
I wanna hold you all night,
in the first sign of light, everyday for the rest of my life. From now on I wanna kiss you good morning.
