

Criminals

People Corrupting People

In this age of compassion
Thereâ€™s no more fighting, friends
Cause tomorrow youâ€™ll hear the call to jump on the latest trend
Subservient youâ€™ll follow
No time for rational thought
When all you care about are the wonderful things you bought

And how much did they cost?

Your chance for sustenance
Is complete resignation
To a set of ideals that have destroyed our very foundation
Morality and money
Is a downright laughable thought
When one day youâ€™ll have to pay for your name upon a plot

This life is the one thing youâ€™ve got

They pushed us to far
Reopened all our scars
The path is paved right to depression
With a scare tactic thatâ€™s called recession
They pushed me away
I wish that I could stay
But all defense is minimal
So that makes me a criminal

Stay plugged into their system
Too tedious to resist them
We wonâ€™t be gears, or cogs or bolts weâ€™ll be the fucking pistons!
The eyes are all upon us
Know that weâ€™re watching you too
The thing that separates us: we all have nothing to lose

Weâ€™re sick of being used

They pushed us too far
Reopened all our scars
The path is paved right to depression
With a scare tactic thatâ€™s called recession

They pushed me away
I wish that I could stay
But all defense is minimal
So that makes me a criminal

They pushed us too far
Reopened all our scars
The path is paved right to depression
With a scare tactic thatâ€™s called recession

They pushed me away
I wish that I could stay
But all defense is minimal
So that makes me a criminal

We all are criminals
In the eyes of criminals

Lyrics Submitted by People Corrupting People

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>