Smoke and Mirrors

Imagine Dragons

this is my word
this is my way
show me a sign
sweep me awaythis is my word heartbreaker, gatekeeper I'm feeling far away, I'm feeling right theredeep in my heart, deep in my mind take me away, take me away
this is my word
dream maker, life taker open up my mindall I believe is it a dream
that comes crashing down on me all that I hope
is it just smoke and mirrors I want to believe but all that I know is it just smoke and mirrorsall that I've known buildings of stone
fall to the ground
without a sound
this is my word
heartbreaker, gatekeeper
I'm feeling far away, I'm feeling right thereI'm starting to cave I'm losing my flame
I wanted your truth
but I wanted the pain
to disappear
dream maker, life taker
open up my mind[repeat chorus]believe I want to believe[repeat chorus]
