

Clever One

The Flipsides

You have bad taste
'Cause you think he's cool
So you'll get obsessed
And he'll make you drool
And you think that when you're gone
He thinks about you
Today, pick a date and he'll find
Nothing to mention
With no affection
He's the one who makes you so tired
He's the clever one in control
You're getting stupid
I guess it's hopeless now
And he'll make you do
What he wants yu to (do)
No bribes
Just a joke, some mind games
He'll use you like money
It's not so funny
He's the one who makes you so tired
He's the clever one in control
You're getting stupid
I guess it's hopeless now
He's the one who wants to watch you burn
I wonder if you'll ever learn
