

Invaded (By Alexis Castro DJ)

Tokio Hotel

One night, one scream, one echo
Silence louder than before
One tear of blood on the floor Cold wind through my broken door Oh you're beautiful, don't you go, I need you so. Dead all the pain that we shared,
Dead all the glory we had.
It's over, it's over but I always be
Lost in today in the past,
Lost in the future we had.
It's over, it's over but I'll always be Invaded by you, invaded by you. No life, no sound, just you and I
The end feels like the first time Oh, you're beautiful, don't you go, I need you so. Dead all the pain that we shared,
Dead all the glory we had.
It's over it's over but I always be
Lost in today in the past,
Lost in the future we had.
It's over, it's over but I'll always be Invaded by you, invaded by you. Home, come home
Home, come home Home Dead all the dreams that we shared,
Dead all the words that we said.
It's over it's over but I always be,
Lost in today in the past
Lost in the future we had.
It's over, it's over but I'll always be Invaded by you, by you
Invaded by you, oh oh
Invaded by you.
