

Eat That Up, It's Good For You (Live at Brixton Ac

Two Door Cinema Club

You would look a little better, don't you know?
If you just wore less make-up
But it's hard to realize when you're sky high
Fighting off the spaceships And so you're drinking in your room to make it all go
It didn't end too soon, you've got the next one
You're holding on too long, you've gotta let go
Your other love is gone and you know It's too late, it's too late
You've got another one coming and it's gonna be the same
It's too late, it's too late
You've got another one coming and it's gonna be the same I tried to find a quiet place that we could go
To help you make decisions
But I didn't find it easy to tell them apart
With double vision And so you're drinking in your room to make it all go
It didn't end too soon, you've got the next one
You're holding on too long, you've gotta let go
Your other love is gone and you know It's too late, it's too late
You've got another one coming and it's gonna be the same
It's too late, it's too late
You've got another one coming and it's gonna be the same It's too late, it's too late
You've got another one coming and it's gonna be the same
It's too late, it's too late
You've got another one coming and it's gonna be the It's not the same, it's not the same
It's not the same, you're gonna tell me that I'm right
You know, you're gonna come back down
And find yourself where you are again You didn't know, you didn't know
You didn't know, so don't pretend you saw it now
It's not something you'd want to happen
Now you know who you are again It's not the same, it's not the same
It's not the same, you're gonna tell me that I'm right
You know, you're gonna come back down
Find yourself where you are again
