Sarah Lee

Esquerita

Sarah Lee, can't you see
Why I'm cryin' like a child?
You had your fun but what you've done
Has made me mad and drove me wildYou used to be good to me
And now you're always raising sand
And it's so strange how you've changed
And now I don't know where I standWell, I went down to the roadside
When your wheels began to turn
I called your name but you just drove away, yeah
Time's I wonder, will I ever learn?Sarah Lee, look at me
See those lines upon my face
I'm so confused and I been abused
I can hardly stand the paceThe things you did and the truth you hid
They caused me pain and misery
And there's no doubt 'cause I checked it out
You've been double-crossing meWell, I went down to the station
I saw you step onto that train
But someone else was close beside you
Now I wonder will I see you again?Sarah Lee, can't you see
Why I'm cryin' like a child?
You had your fun but what you've done
Made me mad and drove me wildSarah Lee, can't you see
See those lines upon my face?
I'm so confused and I've been abused
I can hardly stand the pace

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/