

Letting Go

Casados

Tangled strings weave knots into my soul
Twist and turn, they fail to unravel
 Feel the pull
 Take its toll

Ashes formed, post-embers burnt out slow
From the fires that once inspired me so
 And left me cold
 This hand to fold

Naked, there's no more for you to see
Good and bad, you've seen all sides of me
 I'll let you be
 Leave slowly

Cut this rope that's holding us together
Years from now I'm sure we will see better
What's so good it couldn't last forever?
 Letting go, I know it will be better
