

Beautiful Remains

Black Veil Brides

We gather here to sing for you,
The words you've written,
Each bloodshot beauty still rings true,
From violent crashes,
Gently rest your weary head,
All we've fought for now, is dead,
Goodnight,
Goodbye,
A soul surrender,
This love will set you free,
From thoughts of yesterday,
Now death has come to claim,
Your Beautiful Remains,
I'll strike the match to set you off,
And watch you glisten,
Our loves in time,

A single loss,
From words I've written,
This love will set you free,
From thoughts of yesterday,
Now death has come to claim,
Your Beautiful Remains,
Rest forever now, my friend,
We we lived for now, is dead,
Goodnight,
Goodbye,
A soul surrender,
This love will set you free,
From thoughts of yesterday,
Now death has come to claim,
Your Beautiful Remains,
Here in this room, is what we must do...
